These forms, it is stated, have been revised in accordance with the recommendations of the Indian Police Commission and have been adopted, as revised, in British India. The I.G. of Police recommends the adoption of the revised forms as uniformity in form is necessary for purposes of comparison. The Madras Govt. have ~~[illegible]~~ adopted the forms as is shown by their order no. 1035-Pol 1.7.05. The forms appended to this order have been further altered by subsequent G.O.s. A set of forms embodying all the changes is put up. The differences between the ~~forms~~ present forms and those proposed to be adopted are noted below:-

SIR,

I have the honour to state that, as per recommendations of the Indian Police Commission of 1902-03 contained in Appendix X of their Report the Tables for the Police Administration Report, have been revised in British India. A printed copy of the Madras Government Order No. 1035 dated 1st July 1905 with the revised statements is herewith forwarded for reference and obliging return.

As these forms, if approved, may be adopted during the current year, I hope you will be able to obtain early orders.
